

SETT Rules Of Engagement

- 1. Commitment to Attendance - If you can't make it to the program please call SETT @ 419-242-2255.
- 2. Respect - Treating yourself and others in the Highest Regard.
- 3. No Put-Downs - No hurtful words about your SETT Troupe Members.
- 4. No Profanity (the "n" word" and the "b" word" and "shut up" is profanity also)
- 5. Feelings - Being considerate and understand when someone is having a bad day.
- 6. I-Statements - Speak for you not the group.
- 7. No Cross talking - One person talking at a time, regardless if it's a youth or adult.
- 8. Confidentiality - What's discussed in SETT stays in SETT with the exception of parents or guardians - we don't share the sensitive discussions that we may hear with friends or acquaintances - we have a duty to protect and a duty to warn if someone is discussing hurting themselves or others.
- 9. Amnesty - We forgive and forget after we've settled our differences - we don't return the next day holding a grudge.
- 10. No Hate - We don't become jealous over what someone else has or the answers they give.
- 11. Try On The Process - This a new experience being involved in a real Brotherhood and Sisterhood - Take it one day at a time - Be patient with yourself and others.
